Welcome to HopeLine!

Hello, I'm Jun! I'm currently working as a nurse in a psychiatric emergency department at a hospital in New York. Through my work with people facing many different challenges, I've come to realize how important it is to have a place where people can feel comfortable sharing their stories.

Life can sometimes feel overwhelming, and there may be times when we feel exhausted or don't know where to turn for help.

At HopeLine, I hope to provide a welcoming space where you can share your concerns without fear of judgment. My role is to listen, understand the challenges you're facing, and help connect you with professional counseling or other support services when needed.

I may not be able to solve every problem, but I sincerely hope to listen with compassion and offer whatever support I can.

Please feel free to reach out to HopeLine whenever you need someone to talk to!

Warmly,
Jun
